

Regulations for the World Championship

Approved by the 1998 General Assembly and 1999 Presidential Board

1. Organization

1.1 The World Championship shall be organized in the months of December to January unless the Presidential Board decides otherwise.

1.2 Governing Body: the World Chess Federation (FIDE)

1.2.1 The President or his Representative shall be responsible for overseeing the preparations and announcement of the date(s) and venue(s) for the World Championship. Once these matters are settled the administrator (see Section 2) shall be responsible for the preparation and organization of the World Championship.

1.2.2 FIDE may have an exclusive contract where these regulations may change after the approval of the General Assembly.

2. Selection of the Administrator

2.1 Any federation which is a member of FIDE or a sponsor may bid for the right to administer the World Championship. In the latter case, FIDE shall consult the federation where the sponsor proposes to hold the Championship. If the federation refuses or is unable to cooperate, FIDE may still accept a proposal from a sponsor.

2.1.1 Each proposal shall contain the following particulars:

- a) the proposed tournament venue;
- b) the proposed prize fund in U.S. Dollars, not less than US$ 3 million.
- c) the concession rates for hotel rooms and meals for the participants;
- d) a statement that the applicant (the proposed Administrator) accepts all the demands made in these regulations;
- e) the applicant's name, signatures and authentications;

f) a bank guarantee for the entire undertaking.

2.1.2 Each proposal shall be accompanied by an invitation to the FIDE President and his Representative to inspect the proposed venue and examine the other conditions with all expenses paid by the applicant, including the cost of visas.

2.1.3 Each proposal shall be delivered to the FIDE Secretariat not later than 12 noon local time on a date to be decided by the FIDE President.

2.1.4 Each proposal shall be accompanied by an application fee of SFr.50,000. If the proposal is accepted, this fee shall be retained as a first payment. If it is not accepted, then the fee shall be refunded by FIDE. In case the conditions in 2.1.1. are not met, then the application deposit fee shall be retained by FIDE.

2.1.5 The proposals shall remain sealed until 12 noon on the date appointed by the President as in 2.1.3. He shall then open them publicly and the details shall be published. Each applicant shall be afforded the opportunity to address the FIDE Presidential Board.

2.1.6 The FIDE Presidential Board shall decide which applicant shall be chosen. The decision reached shall be based on the following criteria which are to be viewed as a whole:

- a) prize fund
- b) playing conditions
- c) security
- d) climate
- e) chess activity both actual and potential in the country hosting the World Championship.
- f) media possibilities
- g) potential development of chess worldwide.

2.1.7 After the Presidential Board has decided who shall be selected to organize the World Championship, the Administrator shall deposit, by a date to be decided by the President, in escrow, net and free of all taxes, with the FIDE bankers the following sums of money:

- a) The prize fund which is inclusive of the sums in 19.1, and
 - b) The sums in 5.1 and 5.2.
- However the interest will be paid back to the Administrator.

- 2.1.8 The President may decide that the deposit of the sums of money in 2.1.7 shall be done in two or more instalments within certain stipulated periods under a formal agreement with FIDE.
- 2.1.9 At any time, the sums deposited in escrow shall be forfeited to FIDE if the Administrator fails to organize the championship or is in breach of the agreement with FIDE for the organization of the World Championship.
- 2.2 The World Championship shall commence on a date to be decided by the FIDE Presidential Board when deciding upon the choice of applicants.
- 2.3 If there are no bids for the World Championship, the FIDE Presidential Board shall decide whether to hold the World Championship under different financial conditions from those stipulated in these regulations.
- 2.4 Existing contract between FIDE and the World Chess Foundation (WCF) shall have priority over any other contract.

3. Organizing Committee

- 3.1 The World Championship shall be conducted according to an organizational plan determined by the Administrator in consultation with the President, the federation hosting the event and the sponsors. A Chairman of the Organizing Committee (COC) shall be appointed.
- 3.2 The COC shall draw up a plan listing the administrative branches requiring managers. These shall include at least the following: finance; playing hall; media; facilities for players; facilities for delegations; arbiters; stewards; bulletin production; commentary on play; side-shows; concessions; the Grand Challenge; opening and closing ceremonies; security; refreshments; medical facilities. Details of the managers including their addresses, telephone and fax numbers and e-mail addresses shall be circulated.

3.3 The Administrator shall invite the President and two of his appointed Representatives and the Chief Arbiter to inspect the preparations. Travelling and accommodation costs are to be borne by the Administrator.

3.4 Once the Organizing Committee is set up, further arrangements for the World Championship where not precisely determined by these regulations shall proceed according to guidelines from the FIDE President.

4. Finance

4.1 FIDE shall be reimbursed for its direct expenses incurred in the World Championship Organization. This shall be a fixed sum agreed between the Administrator and the President.

4.2 As organizer of the World Championship, FIDE has exclusive financial rights to the event and is free to exploit them commercially, including entering into advertisements agreements either with the Administrators or Sponsors of the Championship requiring players to wear clothes, aprons or caps with the branding of sponsors on the express approval of the FIDE President. The players are precluded from making any additional claims from FIDE or Administrator of the Championship over and above the net sums due to them from their prizes.

4.3 The income provided by the World Championship through admission charges, concessions, photography, radio, shall go to the Administrator. The television and Internet Web transmission rights, including video and film rights, shall belong to FIDE and the income divided as follows: 50% to FIDE and 50% to the Administrator.

4.4 The COC shall draw up as detailed a budget as possible, including provision for contingencies. This shall be subject to the approval of the President.

5. Stipends

5.1.1 The following stipends are to be paid to the Principals of the World Championship:

a)	President or his Representative who shall be Chairman of the Appeal Committee	SFr.	20,000
b)	Three members of the Appeal Committee	SFr.	27,000
c)	Chief Arbiter	SFr.	14,000

e)	Three Deputy Arbiters (Rounds 1 to 5)	SFr.	9,000
f)	Four Arbiters (Rounds 1 to 2)	SFr.	6,000

5.1.2 If any of the Principals is active for only part of the duration of the World Championship, his stipend shall be paid on a pro rata basis.

5.2 SFr.5,000 shall be paid to each of the FIDE General Secretary and Treasurer.

6. Arrangements for the Playing Hall

6.1 The COC shall ensure the playing hall and its environs at least meet the requirements of the FIDE Regulations for the Organization of Top Level Tournaments C.01.

6.2 The playing venue shall be decorated with the FIDE flag, the flags of the host nation and the participating Federations and the sponsors' branding.

6.3 For the Final Match, the players shall each have a private room to which they may retire. The rooms shall be similar in nature and equipped with a live monitor of the chess board and clock. The rooms shall be comfortable including such facilities as fridge, coffee and tea, light refreshments according the list provided by the players and lavatories shall be provided in their immediate vicinity.

7. Interviews, functions and mode of dressing

- 7.1 Interviews with people other than players can be arranged directly.
- 7.2 The players are expected to cooperate reasonably with the media. General interviews with them can be arranged through the Press Officer.
- 7.3 The players are required to make themselves available for short interviews, of not more than 10 minutes duration, immediately after the game.
- 7.4 Players are required to be present at all official functions approved by the FIDE President or his representative during the Championship including official receptions and the opening and closing ceremonies.
- 7.5 Players are specifically requested to note the requirements of FIDE Regulations C.01 (Article 8.1) in respect of their dignified appearance at all times during the World Championship.

8. Photography and Television

- 8.1 Only photographers and camera crew expressly authorized by the Administrator may work in the playing venue.
- a) While more than 16 players are competing, flash may be used only during the first ten minutes .
 - b) While 16 players or less are competing, flash may only be used during the first five minutes.
 - c) In tiebreak games flash may only be used in the first three minutes. In case of sudden death one minute for each game will be allowed.
 - d) After the time limit for the use of flash has expired, the use of cameras without flash may only be permitted if the Arbiter in charge deems their use to be unobtrusive.
 - e) Television cameras must be unobtrusive and may only be used if the Arbiter in charge deems their use to be unobtrusive.

9. Advance Preparations

9.1 Invitations

At least eight weeks before the start of the World Championship, the Chairman of the Organizing Committee shall issue formal invitations to all participants. This shall include the dates and times of the Players' Meeting, opening ceremony, complete schedule and relevant informations such as taxes, hotels and other facilities.

9.2 Principals and their Amenities

The COC shall provide personal stewards as necessary for the President, his Representative, the Chief and Deputy Arbiters.

9.2.1 The Administrator is host to the Principals throughout the World Championship.

a) Travel

The FIDE President or his representative has the right to first class travel by air, sea or rail, at the Administrator's expense. All other Principals shall be provided with transport by air, sea or rail or, if they prefer, any other mode of transport that is not more costly to the Administrator than air travel. All travelling arrangements are to be made by the Administrator. Any Principal making his own travel arrangements without the agreement of the Administrator does so entirely at his own risk.

b) Accommodation

For the FIDE President - a suite in a hotel.

For each Principal - a double room with bath, in a first class hotel.

c) Food and Drink

Provision for food and drink shall be provided for all the Principals on a wholly equal basis. This shall be provided by a specified allowance in local currency per day and/or by set meals. The nature and amount shall be agreed between the COC and President.

d) Local Transportation

For the FIDE President, a chauffeur-driven car. For the other Principals, a number of cars shall be made available; their use will depend on the position of the hotels, playing hall and media center, and on the leisure activities of the Principals. Alternatively, a daily allowance in local currency may be provided, the amount to be agreed between the COC and President.

10. Playing Conditions

10.1 Only the players, arbiters and stewards shall be allowed in the actual playing area except with the express permission of the Chief Arbiter.

10.2 During the playing session (lasting from 10 minutes before the start of the game until the departure of players), the following additional regulations shall be in force:

- a) The players are not permitted to bring into the playing venue technical and other equipment extraneous to play, which may in any way disturb or upset the opponent. The Chief Arbiter shall decide what constitutes extraneous equipment liable to offend the opponent.
- b) A player may talk only to an arbiter or communicate with a steward, or with his opponent as permitted by the Laws of Chess.

10.3 Scoresheets

- a) At the end of each game the players' original scoresheets shall be given to the Arbiter, who shall hand them over to FIDE in due course.
- b) Refusal of either player to sign the scoresheets shall be penalized according to Article 13.4 of the Laws of Chess. After the players have signed the scoresheets, the Arbiter shall countersign to confirm the results.
- c) In tiebreak games, the players and the Arbiter shall sign the protocol.

10.4 Players' Meeting.

Players are required to attend the Players' Meeting on the day of the Opening Ceremony at a time to be decided by the Chief Arbiter. If he deems it necessary, the Chief Arbiter may call other Players' Meetings.

11. Opening Ceremony

- a) The Opening Ceremony shall take place the day prior to the first round and all participants are required to take part.
- b) The pairings and draw for colors for round 1 shall be carried out as part of the opening ceremony.

12. Playing Schedule and Games

12.2.1

The Administrator, in consultation with the President, may vary the schedule.

13.

Confirmation of Participation / Conduct of Players

13.1

All players shall confirm, by fax and registered post, their participation by returning the signed original copy of the Players' Undertaking for participation in the World Championship. It must reach the FIDE Secretariat no later than the date prescribed by the Presidential Board.

If a player fails to appear at the Players' Meeting, the Opening or Closing Ceremony or any approved function of the Championship, or refuses to carry out any directive of the FIDE President or any of the Championship Principals, or conducts himself in a manner contrary to the spirit of sportsmanship or the FIDE Code of Ethics, then he shall suffer the following penalties: 5% of his prize money shall be forfeited to the Administrator and a further 5% to FIDE for each negligence.

- 13.3 A player who returns his undertaking but withdraws before the draw is announced, will be replaced by a player in the the Reserve List. Two reserve players shall each receive a fee of US$ 2,000 and shall be expected to attend the Opening Ceremony. Once a reserve obtains a place in the World Championship, the US$ 2,000 fee shall become the first tranche of his prize money.
- 13.4 Any player failing to return the undertaking as in 13.1 shall be replaced by the next person on the weighted rating list or if such player is a Zonal Qualifier in accordance with the conditions determined by the Presidential Board for replacement from the Particular Zone..
- 13.5 Any player who does not play after the draw is announced shall not be replaced.
14. Pairings
- 14.1 For purposes of pairings the players shall be ranked according to the last officially published rating list. For the specific purpose of the 2000 World Championship, this shall be the July 2000 Rating List.
- 14.2 Pairings shall follow the principle of top half vs. lower half in total rating order. Players with the same rating shall be ranked in the order of the status of their title GM, IM, WGM, WIM. If this fails, use the rating of the preceding Rating List, looking back until there is a difference. The highest ranked player of the top half shall play the highest ranked player of the bottom half. The second ranked player of the top half shall play the second ranked player of the bottom half. And so on.
- 14.3 64 players shall play in Round 2: 36 winners from Round 1 and 28 players seeded for Round 2 including the World Champion 1999, the 3 other semi-finalists of the World Championship 1999 and the 23 best rated players. According to the same principle as in 14.2 these 64 players shall be ranked. The highest ranked player of the top half shall play the highest ranked player of the bottom half, on the assumption the higher ranked player won the first round match.

- 14.4 The draw for colors shall be conducted as follows:
- a) Whether the highest rated player in Round 1 receives White or Black in game 1 shall be decided by lot and shall be carried out as part of the Opening Ceremony. In Match 2, the higher rated player shall have the opposite color to the number 1 player, and so alternating through the list. The same alternating system shall be used in Round 2 to Round 6 inclusive.
 - b) Games in Round 1 shall be assumed all to have gone with seeding. The color in Game 1 of the highest rated player of Round 2 shall be decided by lot. Lots for Round 2 shall be drawn as soon as possible after the conclusion of the Round 1 tie-break games.
 - c) Games in Round 2- 6 shall be assumed to have all gone with seeding. Lots for Round 3 to Round 6 inclusive, shall be drawn not later than 20.00 hrs on the tie-break game.
 - d) For the tie-break matches, there shall be a drawing of lots for each such match. If these matches are also drawn, there shall be a drawing of lots to decide who shall receive White in the first sudden-death game. If more sudden-death games must be played, there shall be a new drawing of lots for each odd game.
 - e) The method used for the drawing of lots shall be decided by the Chief Arbiter in consultation with the Chairman of the Organizing Committee.

15. Conditions of Victory

- 15.1 Rounds 1 to 5, each match shall be played over two games and the winner of a match shall be the first player to score at 1.5 or more points.
- 15.2 For round 6, each match shall be played over four games and the winner of a match shall be the first player to score 2.5 or more points.

15.3 Round 7, 6 games shall be played. The winner of the match shall be the first player to score 3.5 or 4 points.

15.4 The match is concluded at the conclusion of the game were the winner is known.

15.5 Tiebreaks

- a) If the scores are level after the regular games, after a new drawing of lots, two tie-break games shall be played. The games shall be played using the DGT clock starting with 25 minutes on the clock and the addition of 10 seconds after each move.
- b) If this tie-break match is again drawn, then, after a new drawing of lots, two tie-break games shall be played. The games shall be played using the DGT clock starting with 15 minutes on the clock and the addition of 10 seconds after each move.
- c) If this tie-break match is again drawn, then, after a new drawing of lots, single sudden death games shall be played. The first player to win shall proceed to the next round. If it is in round 7, the winner shall be declared World Champion. The sudden death games shall be played using the DGT clock with White having 4 minutes on the clock and Black five minutes and the addition of 10 seconds after each move.
- c1) The first player to win such a game shall proceed to the next round. If it is in Round 7, the winner shall be declared World Champion 2000.
- c2) If there is a series of such games, there shall be a new drawing of lots for each odd game.
- d) If, in the opinion of the Chief Arbiter, a match is taking too much time, he may decide that the players shall play one decisive game. The player who wins the drawing of lots, may choose the colors. White shall receive 6 minutes without any addition, Black shall receive 5 minutes. There shall be no additional time. The winner qualifies for the next round. In case of a draw the player with the Black pieces qualifies for the next round. If such a game is played in Round 7 the winner will be declared World Champion.

15.6 Laws for tie-break and sudden death games

1. Play shall be governed by the FIDE Laws of Chess, except where they are overridden by the specific provisions of these regulations.
2. Players do not need to record the moves. Instead, an arbiter or an assistant will record the moves.
3. The player whose turn it is to move may consult the scoresheet and, if his next move will produce a threefold repetition of position (Article 9.2a) or the 50 moves rule (Article 9.3a) he himself must write the intended move on the scoresheet.
4. Illegal moves shall be penalised according to Article 10.3.

15.7 After each game there shall be a pause of 10 minutes.

16. Time Control

16.1 The time control shall be 40 moves in 100 minutes, followed by 20 moves in 50 minutes, followed by all moves in 10 minutes. Each player shall receive an extra 30 seconds thinking time after each move played, commencing from the first move. . The games shall be played using the DGT clocks 16.2 The special time controls stipulated in 15.5 shall be used in the tie-break and sudden death games.

16.3 No postponements shall be allowed.

17. Selection of Arbiters

17.1 The FIDE Presidential Board shall nominate a list of nine arbiters who must have the title of International Arbiter and who belong to different federations.

17.1.1 In each match, no arbiter may belong to the same federation as either of the players. Exception: if both players are members of the same federation, an arbiter may also belong to this federation.

- 17.1.2 The FIDE President shall appoint, in consultation with the Administrator, the Chief Arbiter and the Deputy Chief Arbiter.
- 17.1.3 The FIDE President shall take into consideration 17.1.1 and, if necessary, may re-designate the Arbiters after Round 4.
- 17.2 During play either the Chief Arbiter or the Deputy Chief Arbiter must be present in the playing area.
- 17.3 Immediately after the end of the World Championship, the Chief Arbiter shall draw up a report and send it without delay to the FIDE President.
- 17.3.1 The report shall be written in one of the official FIDE languages.
- 17.3.2 The report shall contain the result of each individual game as well as the final result of each match. In addition, the report shall contain a general description of the course of the World Championship. If there were difficulties, conflicts or incidents during the World Championship, they shall be described together with the measures taken to deal with them.
- 17.3.3 The report shall be supplemented by adding two copies of the bulletin of the World Championship.
- 17.4 The Chief Arbiter may, in consultation with the COC, and with the approval of the FIDE President, issue additional written regulations to lay down the exact playing hours and take care of other details not covered by these regulations.
- 17.5.1.1 If 17.1.3 is exercised, then the reports in 17.3 shall be submitted jointly.
18. Appeals Committee

- 18.1 The President or his Deputy shall be Chairman of the Appeal Committee. There shall be three other members all from different Federations. No member of the Appeal Committee shall sit in judgement in a dispute involving a player or party from his Federation except where the dispute is between two players or two parties from his Federation.
- 18.2 All protests must be submitted in writing to the Appeals Committee not more than two hours after the relevant playing session, or the particular infringement complained against.
- 18.3.1 The Committee may decide on the following matters:
- a) a protest against a decision by an arbiter,
 - b) a protest against a player's behaviour,
 - c) a complaint alleging false interpretation of the regulations,
 - d) a request for the interpretation of specific regulations,
 - e) a protest or complaint against any participant, or
 - f) all other matters which the Committee considers important.
- 18.3.2 If possible, the Committee shall reach a decision not more than two hours after the submission of a protest. The appeals process shall include written representations and a written decision.
- 18.3.3 The Committee shall endeavour to find binding solutions in the FIDE spirit.
- 18.3.4 Every protest must be accompanied by a deposit fee of US$ 400 (four hundred US Dollars) or the equivalent in local currency. If the protest is accepted, the fee shall be returned. If the protest is rejected, the fee may be forfeited to FIDE.
- 18.3.5 The decision of the Appeals Committee arising from any dispute in respect of these regulations shall be final.
